

THE TEACHING CENTER

Programs & Services for Graduate Students and Postdocs Fall 2019

Workshops

Attend 90-minute evidence-based teaching workshops:

Foundations in Teaching (FIT)

For graduate students and postdocs new to teaching

- Asking Questions to Improve Learning (Sept 17, Sept 19)
- Design and Deliver a Lecture (Oct 9, Oct 10)
- Improvisation in Your Teaching (Nov 6, Nov 7)

STEM Pedagogies

For advanced graduate students and postdocs in STEM fields

- Introduction to Team-Based Learning (Sept 11)
- Teaching Students How to Read and Critically Evaluate Scientific Literature (Sept 24)
- Inclusive Teaching in STEM (Oct 17)
- Fostering a Growth Mindset (Nov 28)

Pedagogies in the Humanities, Arts, & Social Sciences

For advanced graduate students and postdocs in the humanities, arts, and social sciences

- Facilitating Challenging Conversations (Sept 10)
- Constructing Effective Collaborative Learning Opportunities (Oct 9)
- Motivating Student Learners (Nov 7)

Job Market

For advanced graduate students and postdocs entering the job market

- Writing a Teaching Philosophy Statement (Aug 27, Aug 28, Aug 29)
- Addressing Diversity and Inclusion in Job Market Materials (Oct 23, Oct 24)
- Creating a Teaching Portfolio (Nov 19)

Visit the Teaching Center website to register and for more information.

Programs

Professional Development in Teaching Program

For graduate students and postdocs

EPIC Learning Community

For graduate students in their first years of teaching

Grad Student & Postdoc Reading Community

Cross-disciplinary conversation on teaching and learning

Individual Consultations

Schedule an appointment with the professional staff to discuss:

- Troubleshooting classroom challenges
- Designing courses and course materials
- Strategies for engaging students and promoting classroom participation
- Feedback on your teaching
- Using technology effectively in your classroom

Web Resources

Explore resources on The Teaching Center website:

- Resources: Strategies and videos on evidence-based teaching practices
- iClicker Support
- Meta {blog}: Insights on current teaching research
- Calendar: Upcoming workshops & events
- Teaching Center program information
- Schedule consultations or video recordings
- Classroom Directory: Photos, descriptions and technology profiles for campus classrooms