

THE TEACHING CENTER

Programs & Services for Graduate Students and Postdocs Fall 2018

Workshops

Foundations in Teaching (FIT)

For graduate students and postdocs new to teaching

- Who's in Charge Here? Strategies for Managing a Classroom (Sept 25, Sept 28)
- Strategies to Increase Student Participation (Oct 24, Oct 25)
- Pedagogy 102 (Nov 28, Nov 29)

STEM Pedagogies

Evidence-based teaching workshops for advanced graduate students and postdocs in STEM fields

- Applying Cognitive Science to Teaching: Metacognition (Sept 18)
- Implementing PBL/CBL and Designing Course Material (Oct 4)
- Classroom Assessment Techniques (Oct 30)
- Introduction to Pedagogical Scholarship (Nov 13)

Pedagogies in the Humanities, Arts, & Social Sciences

Evidence-based teaching workshops for advanced graduate students and postdocs in humanities, arts, and social sciences

- Facilitating Challenging Conversations (Sept 11)
- Incorporating Active Learning into Lectures (Oct 10)
- Responding Effectively to Student Writing (Nov 8)

Professional Development in Teaching

For advanced graduate students and postdocs entering the job market

- Writing Teaching Philosophy Statements (Aug 28, Aug 29, Aug 30)
- Jump-Start to Writing a Teaching Statement Program (Thursdays, Sept 6 – Sept 27)
- Addressing Diversity & Inclusion in Job Market Materials (Oct 23, Oct 25)
- Creating a Teaching Portfolio (Nov 29)

Professional Development Programs

Teaching Citation Program

For graduate students

Preparation in Pedagogy Program (PiP)

For graduate students and postdocs

WU-CIRTL Program

For graduate students and postdocs in STEM

EPIC Learning Community

For graduate students in their first years of teaching

Individual Consultations

Schedule an appointment with the Academic Services staff to discuss:

- Troubleshooting classroom challenges
- Designing courses and course materials
- Strategies for engaging students and promoting classroom participation
- Feedback on your teaching
- Using technology effectively in your classroom
- Teaching-related job market materials
- Teaching Center programs

Web Resources

Explore resources on The Teaching Center website:

- Resources: Strategies and videos on evidence-based teaching practices
- Blackboard Support: Blackboard help sheets
- Meta {blog}: Insights on current teaching research
- Calendar: Upcoming workshops & events
- Teaching Center Program Information
- Schedule consultations or video recordings
- Classroom Directory: Photos, descriptions and technology profiles for campus classrooms