ITeach Symposium 2006

Scott Britton
sbritton@wustl.edu
(314) 935-8235

Rina Vecchiola
rvecchio@wustl.edu
(314) 935-5492

Washington University Libraries' Resources and Services
Highlights and Tips

Telesis link to library information
> Logon to Telesis at: https://telesis.wustl.edu/
> Library link for: https://telesis.wustl.edu/Library/Library.aspx
>
> For general Telesis questions, go to: https://telesis.wustl.edu/ and click on link
> "What is Telesis?"

ERes: The Libraries electronic reserves system > http://eres.wustl.edu/
>
> Information for instructors available at:
> http://library.wustl.edu/eres/facultyhelp.html

Libraries' My Catalog to renew books, create preferred searches, and keep a reading history http://catalog.wustl.edu/

Resources by Subject: list of open access and licensed resources selected by Subject Librarians http://library.wustl.edu/subjects/

Library Instruction and Bibliographies for your specific course http://library.wustl.edu/research/usered/

Find Books and more http://library.wustl.edu/findbooks.html

- MOBIUS: Union catalog of academic libraries in Missouri with request functions http://mobius.missouri.edu

- ILLiad: The Libraries interlibrary loan system http://illiad.wustl.edu/illiad/logon.html

- WorldCat: Catalog of books, journals, films, archives and other materials in libraries worldwide.
  http://library.wustl.edu/databases/about/worldcat.html

Find articles
Use Find it! to search multiple databases at once; link to an alphabetical list of electronic resources (indexes, full-text literature collections, image collections, etc.); or search for full-text journal titles http://library.wustl.edu/findart.html

- ➢ Some Highlights

  - Full-text of the New York Times back to 1980 in LexisNexis Academic http://library.wustl.edu/databases/about/au.html
  - American Periodical Series Online is a collection of digitized images of the pages of special interest and general magazines, literary and professional journals, and children's and women's magazines dating from 1740-1900.
  http://library.wustl.edu/databases/about/aps.html
  - Use Web of Science -- a multidisciplinary database covering the journal literature in the sciences, social sciences, and arts and humanities back to 1988 -- for cited reference searching.
  http://library.wustl.edu/databases/about/wos.html
  - Ethnic NewsWatch is an interdisciplinary, bilingual (English and Spanish), and comprehensive full text database of newspapers, magazines, and journals from ethnic, minority, and native presses dating back to 1990.
  http://library.wustl.edu/databases/about/en.html

    - ➢ Tip
      To link to an article, copy Document URL or Stable URL and paste in course Web page
      Or Save a copy of a document in PDF or JPEG format to your local workstation and link to document images

What's New for recently added databases and trials; also check here for exhibits and upcoming library workshops.

 * New databases:
    In the First Person: Index to Letters, Diaries, Oral Histories, and Other Personal Narratives
    The Gerritsen Collection-Women's History Online, 1543-1945
    International Index to Music Periodicals Full Text
    International Index to the Performing Arts Full Text
    The Oxford Encyclopedia of Economic History
* Upcoming Exhibit: Celebrating 100 Years of Federal Information
*Upcoming Workshops: Finding and Using Statistics
    Research in Popular Culture
    Primary Sources