

2016 iTeach Symposium: Welcome

Gina Frey

Florence E. Moog Professor of STEM Education, Chemistry
Executive Director, The Teaching Center
co-Director, CIRCLE

Holden Thorp

Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs
Rita Levi-Montalcini Distinguished University Professor, Chemistry and Medicine

Plenary Panel: Inclusive Teaching and Learning at Washington University

Adrienne D. Davis

Vice Provost

William M. Van Cleve Professor, School of Law

Jennifer M. Kapczynski

Associate Professor, Germanic Languages & Literatures

co-Chair, Standing Committee on Facilitating Inclusive Classrooms

Beth Fisher

Director, Academic Services, The Teaching Center

Lecturer in Women, Gender and Sexuality Studies

Inclusive Teaching and Learning: Goals

Equity

Fairness

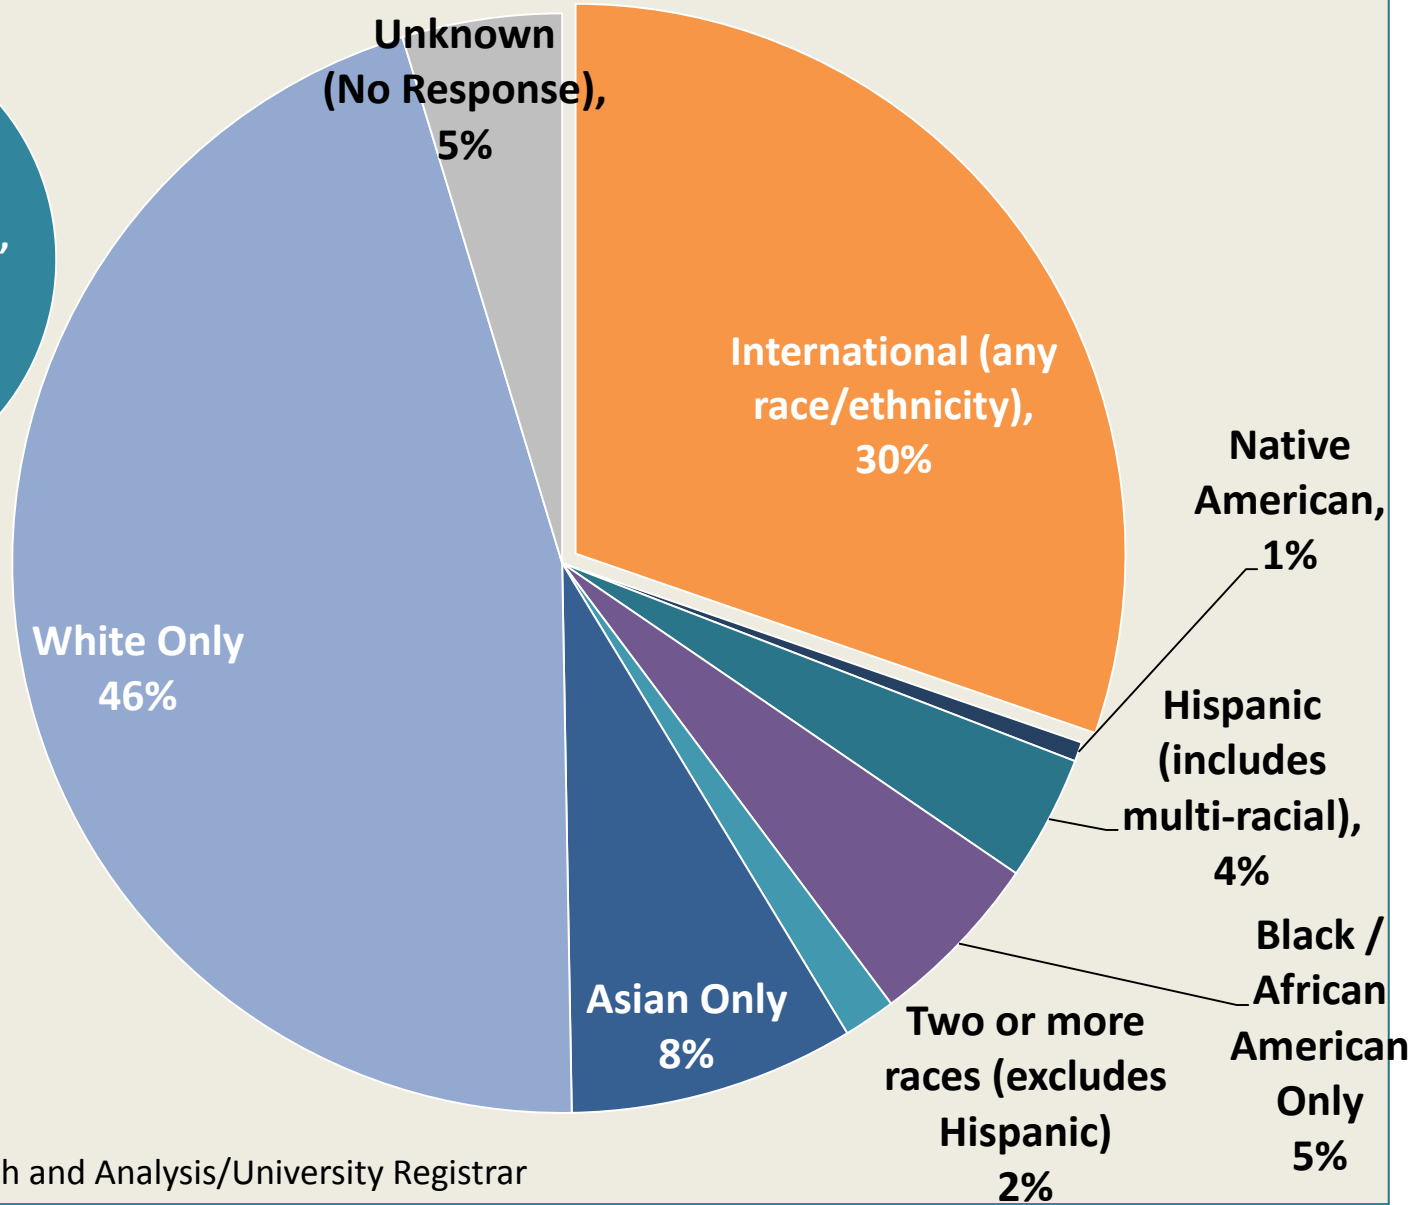

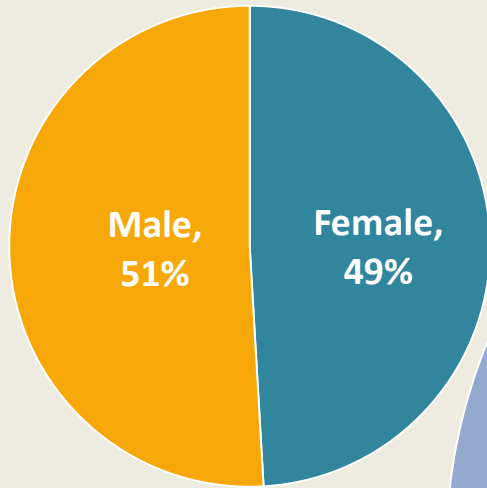

Innovation

Washington University Undergraduate Students

Washington University Graduate and Professional Students

Note: Categories are those used when reporting to the federal government.

Source: Institutional Research and Analysis/University Registrar

Questions for Panelists

- Can you describe a teaching challenge related to inclusion in the classroom?
- Can you describe a change in teaching developed in response to this challenge?
  - Law Course: Trusts & Estates
  - Undergraduate Language Course: Intermediate German
  - Large, Introductory Undergraduate STEM Course: General Chemistry--Peer-Led Team Learning (PLTL)

Questions for Audience

- What is a challenge that you would like to address in 2016, which could help to foster more inclusive learning environment?
- What would you like to do to address this challenge?
  1. Think individually for 1-2 min. and write a brief response on a post-it provided at table
  2. Discuss with 2 neighbors for ~5 min.
  3. Turn in post-it at conclusion

Programs at The Teaching Center

- Workshops and individual consultations on strategies for fostering inclusion and promoting learning
- Inclusion and Diversity Faculty Institute on Teaching
(May 25-26, 2016)
  - Opportunity to collaborate with colleagues to design or refine your teaching (see flyer in folder)
- Fellowship on Inclusive Teaching and Learning
  - Pilot program including course design and evaluation, starting in 2016

Standing Committee for Facilitating Inclusive Classrooms

Current membership listed on flyer in folders

University Initiatives

Inclusive Teaching and Learning: Goals

Equity

Fairness

Innovation