Fall 2017 Workshops, Training, and Symposia
Schedule is subject to change. Consult website for updates: teachingcenter.wustl.edu/events

Introductory Level
Graduate-Student Teaching Orientation: (Aug 16, 23)
Foundations in Teaching Workshops
Foundational training for new course assistants. Priority registration for departments requiring these workshops.
  • Introduction to Blackboard (Sept 6)
  • Teaching a Laboratory Class (Oct 2, 4)
  • Teaching in Office Hours and Review Sessions (Nov 6, 8)

Advanced Level
Pedagogies in the Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences
Evidence-based teaching workshops for future faculty.
  • Collaborative Learning in Groups (Oct 17)
  • Facilitating Inclusive Learning in Groups (Nov 14)

STEM Pedagogies
Evidence-based teaching workshops for future faculty in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics.
  • Structuring Opportunities for Active Learning During Lectures (Sept 19)
  • Evaluating Scientific Literature (Oct 9)
  • Developing a Scholarly Approach to Teaching (Oct 31)
  • Philosophy and Implementation of Peer-Led Team Learning (Nov 16)

Professional Development
Multidisciplinary workshops on preparing for academic jobs.
  • Writing a Teaching Philosophy Statement (Aug 29, 31)
  • Jump-Start Program on Writing a Teaching Philosophy Statement (Starts September 14)
  • Addressing Inclusion and Diversity in Job Market Materials (Oct 10, 19)
  • Creating a Teaching Portfolio (Dec 12)

Watch your email for updates throughout the semester!

Professional-Development Opportunities
Teaching Citation Program for all PhD students
Preparation in Pedagogy (PiP) for all graduate students and postdocs
WU-CIRTL Program for graduate students and postdocs in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics)
Graduate-Student Advisory Group
Graduate Teaching and Learning Community

Individual Consultations
Contact the Academic Services staff to schedule a consultation. Potential topics include:
  • Teaching Center professional-development programs
  • Strategies for solving common classroom challenges and for designing courses and assignments
  • Feedback on video-recorded teaching
  • Guidance on writing a teaching philosophy statement

Learn more at teachingcenter.wustl.edu
  • Resources: Strategies and videos on teaching
  • meta (blog): Insights on current research and best practices in teaching
  • Workshops & Events: Calendar of upcoming events
  • Classroom Directory: Photos, descriptions, and technology
  • Information about our programs
  • Contact forms for scheduling consultations with Teaching Center staff

Eads Hall, Rm. 105
8:30 am-5:00 pm, Mon-Fri
(314) 935-6810
teachcen@wustl.edu
teachingcenter.wustl.edu