Prevention Education

Austin Sweeney | Sexual & Relationship Violence Prevention Specialist

• Oversees violence prevention education and outreach programming
• Works with The Date, Green Dot, Men’s Project & Stand By Me
• Advises LIVE
• Provides violence prevention trainings upon request
• Supervises RSVP Center graduate practicum students
• Does not provide direct services to students

austin.sweeney@wustl.edu | 314-935-4148
Seigle Room 440

How to Get Involved!
Organizations & Programs

Green Dot educates and empowers students, staff and faculty to create a community where violence is not tolerated and everyone plays a part in creating a culture of respect.

Learn more at GreenDot.wustl.edu

Men’s Project creates a space for critical self-reflection and dialogue on what it means to be a man and how masculinity impacts our lives.

Contact Austin Sweeney at austin.sweeney@wustl.edu

LIVE is a peer education organization that seeks to empower our Wash U community by raising awareness about healthy relationships, consent, and interpersonal violence prevention.

Learn more at livewashu.wordpress.com
livewashu@gmail.com

The Date and Rewind Blurred Lines are sexual violence prevention programs for all first-year students. The Date is a theatrical performance addressing interpersonal violence in the Wash U community, followed by peer facilitated breakout discussions.

Rewind Blurred Lines is presented at the beginning of the spring semester, and uses theater to engage students on ways to intervene in situations of interpersonal violence.

To learn more about being a peer facilitator for The Date, email livewashu@gmail.com

Stand By Me is a 4-part relationship violence prevention program for all sophomores living in Residential Life housing.
Who We Are

The RSVP Center is a community health resource committed to prevention education, as well as response, support and empowerment for victims of relationship and sexual violence.

We are devoted to creating a safe living and learning community by proactively addressing issues of interpersonal violence and providing comprehensive services and resources. The RSVP Center strives to be a national leader in prevention, education and response.

Response

Support

Advocacy

Counseling

The RSVP Center is a community health resource committed to prevention education, as well as response, support and empowerment for victims of relationship and sexual violence.

We are devoted to creating a safe living and learning community by proactively addressing issues of interpersonal violence and providing comprehensive services and resources. The RSVP Center strives to be a national leader in prevention, education and response.

Our office is located on the 4th floor of Seigle Hall – Office Suite 435.

Response

Support

Advocacy

Counseling

Our office is located on the 4th floor of Seigle Hall – Office Suite 435.

Survivor & Victim Resources Offered by Kim

• Forensic Exams for sexual, dating and/or domestic violence
• Prophylactic Medical Care, not involving evidence
• Mental Health Care
• Internal Judicial Process
• WUPD/Criminal Process
• Orders of Protection/No contact orders
• Academic accommodations
• Housing accommodations
• Medical leave
• Safety planning

If you have experienced sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking...

You can talk with us confidentially.

Kim Webb | Director

• Leads the RSVP Center
• Focuses on crisis response and survivor support
• Provides counseling
• Arranges academic & housing accommodations
• Works with prevention education
• Supervises RSVP Center graduate practicum students
• Advises S.A.R.A.H.

kim_webb@wustl.edu | 314-935-8761
Seigle Room 444

S.A.R.A.H. is a student run, confidential helpline that offers counseling, resources, and referrals on rape, sexual assault, abuse, relationships, and health. It operates on a 24/7 basis during the academic year.

If you leave a name and number, a S.A.R.A.H. member will call you back within 20 minutes.

Non-Confidential

• Jessica Kennedy | Director of Title IX and Title IX Coordinator: 314-935-3118
• Wash U Police Department: 314-935-5555
• Stephanie Weiskopf | LGBTQIA Involvement (Campus Life): 314-935-5038
• Residential College/Community Directors (RCDs) and RAs